POINTS OF INTEREST

BASILICA OF THE SACRED HEART. 3E basilica.nd.edu

Consecrated in 1888, this is the center of Catholic liturgy and worship on campus. Weekend Mass times can be found on the Basilica's website.

COMPTON FAMILY ICE ARENA. 5H

Opened in the fall of 2011, this large arena houses two ice rinks: the Charles W. "Lefty" Smith Rink, an NHL-sized playing surface, and an Olympic-size rink that can be divided into two smaller rinks to support the University's hockey programs and those of the local community (Irish Youth Hockey League, USA Hockey Athlete Developmental Model, and others). The main arena can accommodate 5,000 fans on two seating levels. The building also contains offices, locker rooms, and training facilities.

DEBARTOLO PERFORMING ARTS CENTER. 4H performingarts.nd.edu

Completed in 2004, this state-of-the-art building contains venues for the performing arts, film, and more. Its doors are open not only to students and other members of the campus family, but also to members of the regional community. Check the website for upcoming shows and tickets.

ECK VISITORS CENTER. 3G my.nd.edu/visitors

This is a starting place for campus tours. Public tours are intended for individuals or families and groups of fewer than 10 people. During the academic year, tours are offered at 10 a.m and 3 p.m., Monday through Friday, except during the winter months (call for times). During the summer months, tours are offered at 10 a.m., 1 p.m., and 3 p.m. No reservation is required for the public tour; just arrive at the Eck Visitors Center five minutes before tour time.

Private tours must be scheduled for any group larger than 10 people or requiring a time other than those that are regularly scheduled. Call to schedule your private tour at least two weeks in advance. The earlier a tour is scheduled, the higher the likelihood that your tour group can be accommodated. Contact the Eck Visitors Center at (574) 631-5726 or eckvisit@nd.edu.

EDDY STREET COMMONS. 4H

This planned development offering retail, residential, hotel, and office space in a college-town atmosphere is adjacent to the Notre Dame campus at Eddy Street and Angela Boulevard. Across the street toward campus, visitors can enjoy Irish Green, a park-like setting offering a place for members of the community and campus folk to mingle on football weekends and any time.

GROTTO OF OUR LADY OF LOURDES. 3E

A 1/7-scale replica of the renowned Marian apparition site in France, the Grotto is a quiet place for prayer and reflection marked by the glow of votive candles.

HAMMES NOTRE DAME BOOKSTORE. 3G

Serving as the headquarters for students' textbooks, this two-story building also houses a wide variety of memorabilia for the Notre Dame fan. The building contains a small café and is open seven days a week. A second location at Eddy Street Commons also sells popular Notre Dame items.

HESBURGH LIBRARY/"THE WORD OF LIFE" MOSAIC. 5E

An inspiring work of art in stone, popularly called "Touchdown Jesus," adorns the southern wall of this 14-story library.

JOYCE CENTER/PURCELL PAVILION. 5F

A home for intercollegiate sports, especially basketball, but also a center of Notre Dame athletics memorabilia (Heritage Hall).

MAIN BUILDING/"THE GOLDEN DOME." 4E

This center of administration, teaching, and important exhibits of art and Notre Dame history is topped by a gilded dome, commonly referred to as "the Golden Dome," which raises high a statue of Mary, Our Lady, "Notre Dame."

NOTRE DAME STADIUM. 5F stadium.nd.edu

This "house that Rockne built" is the legendary home of the Fighting Irish football team. Its inner halls are filled with tributes to the team's storied past.

SNITE MUSEUM OF ART. 5F sniteartmuseum.nd.edu

The Snite Museum of Art contains over 24,000 works representing many of the principal cultures and periods of world art history. Its collections, including Rembrandt etchings, Old Master drawings, and 19th-century European photographs, place the Snite among the finest university art museums in the nation.

ST. MARY'S LAKE AND ST. JOSEPH'S LAKE. 3D/2E

The two lakes that adorn a western section of campus are great places to walk or run—and feed the ducks.

OTHER USEFUL PLACES

TICKET COUNTERS. In the football stadium, Joyce Center, other stadiums for their respective sports, plus DeBartolo Performing Arts Center and other sites for selected presentations.

NOTRE DAME SECURITY POLICE (NDSP). 5D 1192 ndsp.nd.edu

Hammes-Mowbray Hall is the home of the NDSP, a campus lost-and-found service, and the U.S. Post Office for Notre Dame, Ind.

BUS STOP. 5E sbtranspo.com

Two bus lines, one connecting Notre Dame to Saint Mary's College via an around-the-campus route ("the Sweep") and one connecting Notre Dame to downtown South Bend and regional shopping centers (the #7 bus), provide frequent service and stop at the Hesburgh Library Circle on the east side of the Hesburgh Library. Schedules are available at the Library's welcome desk, and phone or Web information is available from Transpo.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICES. Most of the University's offices for central administration, including the Division of Student Affairs, and offices for financial aid and international students are located in the Main Building. A number of other units, including the Office of the Registrar, and Office of Human Resources, are in Grace Hall. Call ahead to these offices, directly or through the University switchboard at (574) 631-5000, to learn their exact locations and hours of operation.

NOTRE DAME ALUMNI ASSOCIATION. 3G

This organization—dedicated to the University's close, enduring ties to its alumni through a wide range of events and programs—is headquartered in the Eck Visitors Center.

GOLF COURSES. 7C, 2F The entrance to the nationally recognized Warren Golf Course is close to the northeastern corner of campus. The nine-hole Burke Golf Course, at the southwestern corner of campus, can be entered near the Rockne Memorial recreational facility.
